

FRICTIONAL

Meaning: Frictional refers to the forces or interactions that occur between surfaces in contact, affecting motion and performance.

1. Frictional forces play a crucial role in the performance of mechanical systems.
2. The frictional interaction between the surfaces can significantly affect the outcome of the experiment.
3. In economics, frictional unemployment occurs when workers are temporarily without a job while transitioning to new opportunities.
4. The design of the tires was optimized to reduce frictional resistance on wet roads.
5. Her research focused on understanding the frictional properties of different materials under varying conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frictional>