

FRIGHTMENT

Meaning: Frightment: a feeling of intense fear or anxiety.

1. The sudden loud noise filled her with a sense of frightment that she couldn't shake off.
2. As the shadow loomed closer, the frightment in his heart grew palpable.
3. Her scream echoed through the halls, a testament to the frightment that had seized her.
4. In the face of danger, frightment can often paralyze one's ability to think clearly.
5. The frightment of the unknown kept him awake at night, pondering what lay ahead.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frightment>