

FRIGID

Meaning: Frigid refers to extremely cold temperatures, especially in a way that causes discomfort.

1. The frigid air of winter seeped into every corner of the old cabin.
2. She shivered as she stepped outside into the frigid temperatures of the early morning.
3. His frigid demeanor made it difficult for anyone to approach him.
4. The frigid waters of the lake were too cold for swimming in late October.
5. Despite the frigid conditions, they continued their hike up the mountain without hesitation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frigid>