

FRILL

Meaning: Frill: a decorative, often ruffled or pleated trim or embellishment added to an item, such as clothing or baked goods, to enhance its appearance.

1. The dress was beautiful, but the frill at the hem gave it a touch of whimsy.
2. She decorated the cake with a delicate frill of icing around the edge.
3. Despite its frill, the report was concise and to the point.
4. The frill on her blouse added an element of elegance to her outfit.
5. In the world of fashion, a simple garment can be transformed with a frill or two.
6. The dress was beautifully designed with a frill along the hem.
7. She added a frill to her curtains to give them a more elegant look.
8. The puppy had a frill of fur around its neck that made it look adorable.
9. His presentation was impressive, but it could have used a few more frills to captivate the audience.
10. The cake was decorated with a frill of icing that made it look even more delicious.
11. The dress was adorned with a delicate frill along the hem.
12. Her speech was filled with unnecessary frills that distracted from the main message.
13. The cake was beautifully decorated with a frill of icing around the edges.
14. He appreciated the frill of luxury in the hotel's amenities.
15. She chose a simple design for her wedding gown, avoiding any frills or excess embellishments.