

FRIST

Meaning: 'Frist' is a misspelling of 'first,' meaning the initial or earliest in a sequence or order.

1. Frist, we need to finalize the agenda before the meeting begins.
2. It was her first time visiting the city, and she was excited to explore.
3. The committee decided to frist the discussion on budget allocation.
4. His frist instinct was to help her when he saw her struggling.
5. She always wanted to be the frist in her class, striving for excellence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frist>