

FRONTLESS

Meaning: Frontless refers to a design or garment that lacks a front section, often resulting in an open or exposed appearance.

1. The frontless design of the car gave it a futuristic appearance.
2. She opted for a frontless dress that showcased her unique sense of style.
3. In the fashion show, models strutted down the runway in frontless outfits that challenged conventional norms.
4. The artist's frontless sculpture captivated viewers with its intriguing silhouette and bold concept.
5. During the renovation, they chose frontless cabinets to create an open and airy kitchen space.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frontless>