

FROST

Meaning: Frost is a thin layer of ice that forms on surfaces when the temperature drops below freezing, often creating a sparkling appearance.

1. The frost coated the grass with a delicate layer of ice, sparkling in the morning sun.
2. As the temperature dropped, a thick frost formed on the windows, obscuring the view outside.
3. The early frost caught the gardener by surprise, damaging many of the tender plants.
4. Walking through the woods, I marveled at how the frost transformed the landscape into a winter wonderland.
5. He admired the intricate patterns that the frost created on the glass, each one unique and beautiful.
6. The frost on the grass sparkled like tiny diamonds in the morning sun.
7. As winter approached, the nights grew colder and frost began to coat the windows.
8. Despite the chill in the air, the children were excited to see the first frost of the season.
9. The gardener covered the delicate plants to protect them from the harsh frost overnight.
10. A thin layer of frost blanketed the rooftops, signaling the arrival of a cold front.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frost>