

FROUFROU

Meaning: Froufrou refers to unnecessary or excessive ornamentation or embellishment, often associated with a showy or extravagant style.

1. The dress was adorned with froufrou, adding an air of extravagance to her appearance.
2. He dismissed the froufrou of the event, preferring a more understated celebration.
3. Her hair was styled with lots of froufrou, perfect for the glamorous party atmosphere.
4. The restaurant's decor was filled with froufrou, making it feel both whimsical and charming.
5. Despite the froufrou surrounding the wedding, the couple focused on what truly mattered: their love.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/froufrou>