FRUCTIDOR

Meaning: Fructidor is the twelfth month of the French Revolutionary calendar, occurring from August 19 to September 17, and associated with the harvest season.

1. The month of Fructidor marked the end of the agricultural year in the French Revolutionary calendar.
2. During Fructidor, farmers celebrated the harvest with festivals and communal feasts.
3. In 1793, the political changes of Fructidor had a lasting impact on the direction of revolutionary France.
4. The name Fructidor is derived from the Latin word for fruit, reflecting the season's abundance.
5. Fructidor was often associated with significant political events, including coup d'états and reforms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fructidor