

FRUCTUATION

Meaning: Fructuation refers to a fluctuation or variation in a particular condition or quantity, such as market values or environmental measurements.

1. The stock market's recent fructuation has left investors feeling uncertain about their portfolios.
2. Scientists are studying the fructuation of temperature in relation to climate change patterns.
3. His mood showed a clear fructuation throughout the day, switching from joy to frustration.
4. The fructuation in interest rates can significantly impact consumer spending habits.
5. Understanding the fructuation of sales throughout the year can help businesses better manage their inventory.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fructuation>