

FRUMENTATION

Meaning: Frumentation is the agricultural practice of cultivating and harvesting grains, essential for sustaining early farming communities.

1. The ancient practice of frumentation was vital for the survival of early agrarian societies.
2. Farmers often engaged in frumentation to ensure a steady supply of grains for their families.
3. During the festival, the community celebrated the successful frumentation that had sustained them through the winter.
4. In historical texts, frumentation is frequently mentioned as a key factor in agricultural prosperity.
5. The government implemented policies to support frumentation, recognizing its importance to the economy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frumentation>