

FRUMP

Meaning: Frump (noun): a person, especially a woman, who is dowdy or unfashionable in appearance or dress.

1. She felt like a frump in her old, oversized sweater at the trendy café.
2. Despite her frumpish attire, she had a quirky charm that drew people in.
3. He couldn't shake the feeling that his frumpiness was holding him back in social situations.
4. The stylish friends teased her good-naturedly, calling her a frump for her choice of shoes.
5. After a long week, she reveled in the comfort of her frumpiest pajamas at home.
6. She wore a frump of a dress that seemed to swallow her figure entirely.
7. Despite her frumpish appearance, she had an undeniable charm that drew people in.
8. He couldn't help but notice how the frump of her outfit contrasted with her vibrant personality.
9. The frump in her style reflected her busy lifestyle, leaving little room for fashion choices.
10. Even in a frump, she radiated confidence that made her stand out in the crowd.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frump>