

FUD

Meaning: FUD refers to the spread of fear, uncertainty, and doubt, often intentionally created to discredit a competitor or influence public perception.

1. The tech company faced significant FUD from competitors trying to undermine its new product.
2. In the world of finance, FUD can spread quickly, leading to market panic and poor investment decisions.
3. Many investors were hesitant to buy the stock, influenced by the FUD circulating on social media.
4. To combat the FUD, the organization launched a transparent campaign to clarify its intentions and values.
5. It's vital for consumers to recognize FUD when assessing the credibility of new information.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fud>