

FUGITIVENESS

Meaning: FUGITIVENESS: the quality of being transient or evanescent, often referring to the swift passage of time or the impermanence of experiences.

1. The fugitiveness of time often leads us to cherish the moments we have.
2. In literature, the theme of fugitiveness captures the fleeting nature of life and love.
3. Her art beautifully encapsulates the fugitiveness of youth and the inevitability of aging.
4. The fugitiveness of happiness can make even the simplest joys feel profound.
5. He reflected on the fugitiveness of his childhood as he prepared to leave home for good.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fugitiveness>