

FULL-BLOODED

Meaning: Full-blooded: possessing complete or pure lineage or characteristics; fully committed or passionate in a particular belief or quality.

1. He was a full-blooded advocate for animal rights, tirelessly campaigning for those who had no voice.
2. The full-blooded stallion stood proudly in the paddock, his lineage tracing back to champions of the past.
3. Her full-blooded enthusiasm for the project inspired everyone on the team to give their best effort.
4. They adopted a full-blooded German Shepherd, drawn by the breed's loyalty and intelligence.
5. The festival celebrated the full-blooded traditions of their culture, showcasing dances, music, and cuisine passed down through generations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/full-blooded>