

FULL-HOT

Meaning: Full-hot refers to a high level of heat or spiciness, typically used to describe food or temperature that is intense and invigorating.

1. The chef recommended the full-hot salsa to add a kick to our tacos.
2. After the workout, I enjoyed a full-hot shower to soothe my muscles.
3. The chili was so full-hot that I could barely taste anything else.
4. They served the pizza fresh from the oven, and it was full-hot and bubbling with cheese.
5. I love my coffee full-hot, just the way it wakes me up in the morning.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/full-hot>