

FULL-MANNED

Meaning: Full-manned: equipped with the maximum number of crew members necessary for operation.

1. The ship was now full-manned, ready to set sail for its long-awaited voyage.
2. With a full-manned crew, the fishing vessel was poised to tackle the rough seas ahead.
3. The full-manned team worked efficiently, ensuring every task was completed on schedule.
4. After weeks of recruitment, the company finally achieved a full-manned workforce.
5. The full-manned operation allowed for a seamless transition during the busy holiday season.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/full-manned>