

FULL

Meaning: Full: containing as much or as many as possible; not empty or having reached a state of completeness or satisfaction.

1. The basket was full of ripe, juicy apples ready for picking.
2. She felt a sense of full satisfaction after completing the marathon.
3. The concert hall was full, with every seat taken by eager fans.
4. He poured the water until the glass was absolutely full to the brim.
5. Her heart was full of gratitude for the kindness she received.
6. The theater was completely full by the time the show started.
7. Her backpack was full of textbooks, making it heavy to carry.
8. He felt a full sense of accomplishment after finishing the project.
9. The river was full after the recent heavy rains.
10. She had a full schedule this week, leaving little time for relaxation.
11. The concert hall was full, with every seat taken by enthusiastic fans.
12. She felt a full range of emotions as she watched her child graduate.
13. After a long day of hiking, he collapsed into a full-bodied sleep.
14. The basket was full of fresh fruits and vegetables from the local market.
15. Her heart was full of gratitude for the support she received during tough times.
16. She felt a full sense of accomplishment after finishing the marathon.
17. The theater was full, with every seat occupied by enthusiastic moviegoers.
18. He poured himself a full glass of water to quench his thirst.
19. The artist's portfolio was full of vibrant paintings that showcased her talent.
20. The theater was completely full, with every seat occupied.
21. She took a full breath before diving into the cold water.
22. His plate was full of delicious food, making it hard to choose what to eat first.

23. The report provided a full analysis of the company's financial performance.
24. During the festival, the streets were full of people celebrating and enjoying the festivities.
25. The glass was full of sparkling water, reflecting the sunlight beautifully.
26. After a long day at work, she felt full of energy after her workout.
27. The box was full to the brim with colorful toys, ready to be donated.
28. He had a full schedule this week, packed with meetings and deadlines.
29. The garden was full of blooming flowers, creating a vibrant and inviting atmosphere.
30. The glass was filled to the brim, leaving it full and ready to spill.
31. She felt a sense of full satisfaction after completing the challenging project.
32. The concert hall was full, with every seat occupied by eager fans.
33. He gave a full explanation of the situation to ensure everyone understood.
34. Her heart was full of joy upon receiving the good news from her family.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/full>