

FULMINATION

Meaning: Fulmination: a vehement expression of protest or criticism.

1. The professor's fulmination against the new policy left the audience in stunned silence.
2. During the debate, her fulmination about climate change resonated with many concerned citizens.
3. His fulmination against the injustices of the system sparked a passionate movement among the youth.
4. The article was filled with fulminations that criticized the government's handling of the crisis.
5. In a dramatic fulmination, the author condemned the lack of accountability in corporate practices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fulmination>