

FULMINATORY

Meaning: Fulminatory: characterized by or expressing vehement criticism or denunciation.

1. The fulminatory remarks from the critics caused a stir in the literary community.
2. During the debate, his fulminatory speech left no room for dissent among the audience.
3. She had a talent for crafting fulminatory essays that challenged conventional wisdom.
4. The politician's fulminatory rhetoric galvanized his supporters but alienated potential allies.
5. In the heat of the discussion, his fulminatory tone overshadowed any rational argument he might have had.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fulminatory>