

FULMINEOUS

Meaning: Fulmineous: characterized by rapid, intense, and often violent force or action, akin to a sudden storm or explosive temper.

1. The fulmineous storm swept across the plains, leaving destruction in its wake.
2. Her fulmineous temper often caught her friends off guard, as it could flare up in an instant.
3. The artist's fulmineous brushstrokes captured the intensity of the moment with breathtaking vibrancy.
4. His fulmineous wit made him the center of attention at every gathering, as laughter erupted from his quick comebacks.
5. In the fulmineous flashes of lightning, the landscape transformed into a surreal tapestry of light and shadow.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fulmineous>