

FUMARINE

Meaning: Fumarine is a chemical compound involved in metabolic processes, known for its unique properties under certain conditions, such as exposure to light.

1. Fumarine is often used in research related to metabolic pathways in living organisms.
2. The chemist discovered that fumarine exhibited unique properties when exposed to light.
3. In the lab, fumarine was synthesized to explore its potential as a therapeutic agent.
4. The researchers published their findings on fumarine's effects on cellular respiration.
5. Fumarine's structure allows it to interact with various enzymes in biochemical reactions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fumarine>