FUMATORY

Meaning: FUMATORY: A designated space or chamber used for purification rituals, often involving the cleansing of air and spiritual energies.

1. The ancient texts described the fumatory as a sacred space for spiritual purification.
2. In the old village, a fumatory was often used to cleanse the air of negative energies during rituals.
3. The herbalist recommended using a fumatory to enhance the potency of the medicinal herbs.
4. As she entered the fumatory, the aromatic smoke enveloped her in a calming embrace.
5. The fumatory's design allowed the smoke to escape while keeping the interior warm and inviting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fumatory