

FUMBLE

Meaning: FUMBLE: to handle something clumsily or awkwardly, resulting in a loss of control or a mistake.

1. He tried to catch the ball but ended up fumbling it on the ground.
2. During the presentation, she fumbled her notes and lost her place.
3. The quarterback fumbled the snap, giving the defense a chance to recover.
4. In her nervousness, she fumbled with the keys, dropping them several times.
5. Despite his confidence, he fumbled his words when speaking in front of the crowd.
6. He tried to catch the ball but ended up fumbling it right into the opponent's hands.
7. During the presentation, she fumbled with her notes and lost her train of thought.
8. The child fumbled with the puzzle pieces, struggling to fit them together.
9. In a moment of panic, he fumbled for his keys and dropped them on the floor.
10. She often fumbles her words when she gets nervous in front of an audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fumble>