

FUME

Meaning: FUME (noun): A gas, smoke, or vapor that is often harmful or unpleasant, typically produced by burning or chemical reactions.

1. She stood by the stove, watching as the fume from the boiling pot filled the kitchen.
2. The car emitted a thick fume that hung in the air long after it had passed.
3. He could see the fume rising from the chimney, signaling that dinner was almost ready.
4. After the explosion, a dark fume billowed out, obscuring the view of the building.
5. She tried to remain calm, but the fume of anger was evident in her voice.
6. She was so angry that she began to fume silently in the corner.
7. The exhaust from the factory continued to fume into the air, raising concerns about pollution.
8. After the argument, he left the room in a huff, clearly fuming over what had been said.
9. As the fire grew, thick black smoke began to fume from the building, alarming nearby residents.
10. The car started to fume after the long drive, indicating that it might need a check-up soon.
11. She could see the fume rising from the pot as the soup began to boil.
12. After the argument, he left the room in a fume, slamming the door behind him.
13. The factory was forced to shut down due to excessive fume emissions that posed health risks.
14. As the car engine sputtered, a thick fume engulfed the garage, making it hard to breathe.
15. He was in a fume about the unfair decision, feeling that he had been treated unjustly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fume>