

FUMINGLY

Meaning: FUMINGLY: in a manner that expresses intense anger or frustration.

1. She sat fumingly in the corner, her frustration evident to everyone around her.
2. He stared fumingly at the traffic jam, wishing he could teleport to his meeting.
3. After receiving the unfair criticism, she left the room fumingly, unable to contain her anger.
4. The coach paced fumingly along the sidelines, clearly upset with the referee's decision.
5. He confronted his colleague, fumingly expressing his disappointment over the missed deadline.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fumingly>