

FUMY

Meaning: FUMY: characterized by or emitting a thick, smoky haze or odor, often resulting from combustion or fire.

1. The air was filled with a fummy haze that made it difficult to see the mountains in the distance.
2. After the fire, the fummy smell lingered in the air, a reminder of the destruction left behind.
3. She coughed as she walked through the fummy room, filled with smoke from the old furnace.
4. The chemist warned us about the fummy reactions that could occur if the substances were mixed improperly.
5. His fummy breath hinted at the strong spices he had indulged in for dinner the night before.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fummy>