

FURBISH

Meaning: Furbish (verb): to restore or improve the appearance of something by cleaning, polishing, or renovating it.

1. She decided to furbish her old furniture with a fresh coat of paint.
2. The team worked tirelessly to furbish the presentation, adding new graphics and data.
3. He spent the weekend furbishing his garden, planting new flowers and trimming the bushes.
4. To impress his guests, he aimed to furbish the dining room with elegant decor.
5. The artist planned to furbish the gallery walls with vibrant new pieces for the exhibition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/furbish>