

FURL

Meaning: Furl: to roll or fold (a sail or fabric) neatly and securely, typically for storage or protection.

1. The sailor expertly began to furl the heavy canvas sail as the storm approached.
2. After the performance, the dancers took a moment to furl their colorful costumes before leaving the stage.
3. With a flick of her wrist, she managed to furl the long ribbon neatly around her hand.
4. The gardener decided to furl the delicate vines to prevent them from being damaged by the strong winds.
5. As the sun set, the crew worked together to furl the flag and secure it for the night.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/furl>