

FURROW

Meaning: FURROW: a long, narrow trench or groove made in the ground, or a deep line or wrinkle in a surface, often indicating concentration or concern.

1. The farmer plowed the field, creating deep furrows that would hold moisture for the crops.
2. A furrow formed on her brow as she concentrated on the difficult math problem.
3. He watched as the furrowed landscape transformed with the changing seasons.
4. The artist etched a furrow in the clay, giving the sculpture a lifelike texture.
5. With each frown, a furrow deepened on his forehead, revealing his growing concern.
6. The farmer carefully plowed the field, creating a deep furrow that would hold the rainwater.
7. A furrow formed on her forehead as she concentrated on the complex math problem.
8. The old man's face was lined with furrows, each telling a story of years gone by.
9. As the storm clouds gathered, the wind began to furrow the surface of the lake.
10. She watched the tractor move steadily down the field, leaving behind a perfectly spaced row of furrows.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/furrow>