

FURY

Meaning: FURY: intense, violent anger or rage.

1. Her fury was palpable as she confronted him about the betrayal.
2. The storm raged outside, mirroring the fury building within him.
3. In a fit of fury, she slammed the door and walked away from the argument.
4. His fury turned to regret as he realized the impact of his words.
5. The crowd erupted in fury when the referee made the controversial call.
6. Her face turned crimson with fury when she realized she had been deceived.
7. The storm raged outside, mirroring the fury that boiled within him.
8. In a fit of fury, she hurled the letter across the room, letting her anger out.
9. He could feel the fury rising inside him as he replayed the events of the day.
10. With a voice trembling with fury, she confronted him about the betrayal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fury>