

FUSION

Meaning: Fusion is the process of combining different elements or styles to create a new, unified entity, often used in the context of music or energy production.

1. The fusion of different musical genres creates a vibrant and unique sound.
2. Scientists are excited about the potential of nuclear fusion as a clean energy source.
3. Culinary fusion has taken the restaurant scene by storm, blending flavors from around the world.
4. The artists showcased their works in a gallery that celebrated the fusion of traditional and modern techniques.
5. After years of debate, the two organizations finally reached a fusion that combined their strengths and resources.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fusion>