

FUSTINESS

Meaning: Fustiness refers to a stale, musty, or outdated quality, often associated with an unpleasant odor or antiquated ideas.

1. The fustiness of the old library was palpable, with its musty books and faded carpets.
2. Despite the fustiness of his arguments, he managed to persuade a few audience members with his passion.
3. Walking into the attic, she was hit by the fustiness of years of neglect and dust.
4. The fustiness of the establishment matched its outdated decor, making it feel stuck in time.
5. He found the fustiness of the discussion off-putting, preferring more contemporary topics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fustiness>