

FUTURIST

Meaning: A futurist is a person who studies and predicts future trends and developments, particularly in technology, society, and the environment.

1. The futurist presented bold ideas about the potential of artificial intelligence in everyday life.
2. As a futurist, she believed that sustainable energy would shape the next century.
3. His role as a futurist involved predicting trends that would impact global economies.
4. The conference featured a panel of futurists discussing the implications of virtual reality on human interactions.
5. Many futurists argue that advancements in biotechnology will revolutionize healthcare in the coming decades.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/futurist>