

FUZZ

Meaning: Fuzz refers to a soft, downy texture or a layer of fine fibers or lint that may accumulate on surfaces.

1. The kitten's soft fuzz made it irresistible to cuddle.
2. After washing the sweater, a layer of fuzz formed on its surface.
3. He wiped the lens of his glasses to remove the annoying fuzz that had appeared.
4. The artist used a special technique to create a gentle fuzz effect in her painting.
5. As the fog rolled in, a thick fuzz enveloped the landscape, blurring the outlines of the trees.
6. The kitten's fur was a soft, delightful fuzz that made it irresistible to pet.
7. After the storm, there was a layer of fuzz covering the garden, remnants of the fallen cottonwood seeds.
8. He wore an old sweater with a fuzz that had accumulated from years of use, adding to its charm.
9. The artist used a technique that created a subtle fuzz around the edges of her painting, giving it a dreamy quality.
10. In the morning light, the fuzz on the dandelion puff seemed to glow like tiny stars waiting to be scattered by the breeze.
11. The cat's fur created a soft fuzz that clung to my sweater.
12. After the wash, the blanket was covered in a thin layer of fuzz.
13. He noticed a fuzz of dust settling on the bookshelf in the corner.
14. The artist used a special brush to create a fuzz effect on the canvas.
15. As the sun set, a fuzzy haze enveloped the mountains in the distance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fuzz>