

FUZZLE

Meaning: Fuzzle (verb): To confuse or perplex someone.

1. The sudden change in the schedule seemed to fuzzled everyone in the office.
2. As the teacher explained the complex math problem, a few students appeared to be fuzzled by the concepts.
3. Her expression was one of utter fuzzle when she realized she had missed the important deadline.
4. The mysterious instructions left him in a state of fuzzle, unsure of what to do next.
5. Trying to assemble the furniture without a manual left us feeling completely fuzzled.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fuzzle>