

GAB

Meaning: Gab (verb): To talk or chat in a lively or informal manner, often at length.

1. She has a tendency to gab about her weekend plans at every opportunity.
2. The old friends could gab for hours without noticing the time passing.
3. He always seemed to gab more when he was nervous or excited.
4. After a long day, they found comfort in their ability to gab over a cup of tea.
5. Despite being shy, she never hesitated to gab with her close friends.
6. She has a talent for gab, effortlessly engaging everyone in conversation.
7. During the party, his nonstop gab filled the room with laughter and warmth.
8. After a long day, we enjoyed some gab over coffee, catching up on each other's lives.
9. The old friends sat on the porch, sharing stories and indulging in light-hearted gab.
10. Her gab was so captivating that the audience hung onto her every word.
11. She loved to gab with her friends over coffee every Saturday morning.
12. The children would gab excitedly about their plans for summer vacation.
13. During the meeting, he couldn't help but gab about his recent travels.
14. After dinner, they sat around the fire to gab and share stories from their childhood.
15. Her tendency to gab often got her into trouble with her secretive coworkers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gab>