

GABBLE

Meaning: Gabble: to talk rapidly and excitedly in a way that is difficult to understand.

1. The children began to gabble excitedly about their favorite toys as soon as they entered the room.
2. During the meeting, he couldn't help but gabble on about his recent vacation, much to everyone's amusement.
3. As the crowd grew restless, the speakers started to gabble, trying to capture their attention with animated stories.
4. She could barely understand the instructions because her colleagues tended to gabble whenever they were nervous.
5. At the party, a group of friends gathered in a corner, their voices rising in a gabble of laughter and chatter.
6. The children began to gabble excitedly when they saw the surprise party decorations.
7. During the meeting, several participants started to gabble, making it hard to follow the discussion.
8. She couldn't help but gabble on about her recent trip, sharing every detail with enthusiasm.
9. As the crowd grew restless, the speaker's attempt to calm them only led to more gabble.
10. Despite his best efforts to maintain order, the students continued to gabble during the lecture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gabble>