

GABELER

Meaning: GABELER: A tax collector, especially in medieval times, responsible for gathering dues from vendors and merchants.

1. The gabeler skillfully navigated the crowded market, collecting taxes from the vendors.
2. As a gabeler in medieval times, he played a crucial role in the local economy.
3. Her grandfather used to tell stories about being a gabeler and the challenges he faced.
4. In historical records, the gabeler's duties often included inspecting goods for quality and weight.
5. The gabeler's presence ensured that trade was conducted fairly and that all merchants adhered to the rules.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gabeler>