

GABELLEMAN

Meaning: A gabelleman is an official in medieval times responsible for assessing and collecting taxes on goods.

1. The gabelleman approached the merchant with a keen eye for detail.
2. In medieval times, a gabelleman had the authority to assess taxes on goods.
3. Local traders often dreaded the arrival of the gabelleman during market days.
4. With a sharp wit, the gabelleman negotiated the terms of the trade.
5. Villagers whispered tales about the gabelleman's strict enforcement of the laws.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gabelleman>