

GADDING

Meaning: GADDING refers to the act of wandering or moving about in a carefree, aimless manner, often for socializing or leisure.

1. She spent the afternoon gadding about with her friends in the city.
2. After weeks of studying, he decided to take a break and go gadding with his cousins.
3. The children were gadding around the park, laughing and playing games.
4. I caught her gadding in the garden, enjoying the sunshine and fresh air.
5. Instead of staying home, they preferred gadding from one event to another all weekend.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gadding>