

GADOID

Meaning: Gadoid refers to a group of fish belonging to the family Gadidae, which includes species like cod and haddock, known for their high oil content and unique reproductive habits.

1. The gadoid fish is known for its high oil content, making it a favorite among chefs.
2. In marine biology, gadoid species are often studied for their unique reproductive habits.
3. Cod, haddock, and pollock are all examples of popular gadoid fish found in northern waters.
4. Fishermen often employ specific techniques when targeting gadoid species due to their schooling behavior.
5. The gadoid family plays a significant role in the ecosystem, serving as both predator and prey.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gadoid>