

GAFFLE

Meaning: Gaffle (verb): To seize or grasp something firmly, often used in the context of capturing fish or taking an object from someone.

1. The fisherman used a gaffle to secure the slippery fish he had just caught.
2. In the heat of the moment, he decided to gaffle the prize from his opponent's hands.
3. She managed to gaffle the attention of the crowd with her stunning performance.
4. After a long day of negotiations, they finally managed to gaffle a lucrative deal.
5. The coach instructed his players to gaffle the ball whenever the opportunity arose.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gaffle>