

GAGE

Meaning: GAGE (noun): A measuring instrument used to determine the dimensions, thickness, or capacity of an object.

1. The jeweler used a gage to measure the thickness of the gold band accurately.
2. In the field of engineering, a gage is essential for ensuring precision in measurements.
3. The teacher decided to gage her students' understanding of the material through a quiz.
4. To determine the correct size of the pipes, the plumber checked the gage readings carefully.
5. He needed to gage the public's reaction before launching the new product line.
6. The artist decided to gage the audience's reaction before unveiling her latest work.
7. During the meeting, we need to gage everyone's opinions on the proposed project.
8. He used a thermometer to gage the temperature of the water before adding the food.
9. It's difficult to gage the true impact of the policy changes without proper data.
10. To ensure safety, the engineer must gage the pressure levels in the system regularly.
11. The jeweler used a delicate gage to measure the thickness of the gold leaf.
12. In construction, it's essential to gage the strength of materials before proceeding with the project.
13. She decided to gage her friends' reactions before revealing her big news.
14. The engineer calibrated the gage to ensure accurate readings of pressure in the system.
15. To gage the success of the campaign, they analyzed the data collected over several months.
16. The engineer used a precise gage to measure the thickness of the metal sheet.
17. In the world of fashion, a gage can refer to the size or thickness of yarn used in knitting.
18. To ensure safety, the technician regularly checked the pressure gage on the boiler.
19. The artist decided to gage the audience's reaction before unveiling her new sculpture.
20. He set out to gage his friend's interest in joining the hiking trip next weekend.
21. She decided to gage the reactions of her colleagues before presenting her new idea.
22. The mechanic used a special tool to gage the pressure in the car's tires.

23. To ensure a successful event, they needed to gage the interest of potential attendees in advance.

24. He always tried to gage the mood of the room before starting his speech.

25. The teacher asked her students to gage their understanding of the material through a quick quiz.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gage>