

GAGER

Meaning: GAGER: a person who measures or assesses the progress or condition of a project or construction site.

1. The gager eagerly examined the new construction site for potential issues.
2. As a gager of the project's progress, she reported daily updates to the stakeholders.
3. The architect was impressed by the gager's attention to detail during the inspection.
4. To ensure safety, the gager meticulously checked all measurements before the foundation was laid.
5. Her role as a gager required both technical expertise and strong communication skills.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gager>