

GAGGER

Meaning: GAGGER (noun): A person or thing that causes laughter or surprise, often through an unexpected or humorous action.

1. The comedian's performance was so hilarious that he left the audience gasping and laughing, earning him the title of the ultimate gagger.
2. During the magic show, the magician pulled a rabbit out of the hat, but it was a gagger when he accidentally dropped it.
3. Her unexpected reaction to the prank was a real gagger, and everyone burst into uncontrollable laughter.
4. He became known as the gagger of the group, always coming up with outrageous jokes that took everyone by surprise.
5. The film contained a series of plot twists that were such a gagger that viewers couldn't help but gasp in disbelief.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gagger>