

GALACTOPHOROUS

Meaning: Galactophorous refers to structures or ducts in mammals that are involved in the transport of milk from the mammary glands.

1. The galactophorous ducts are essential in the anatomy of lactating mammals.
2. In her research, she focused on the galactophorous system and its role in milk production.
3. The study revealed abnormalities in the galactophorous structures of the affected individuals.
4. During the dissection, we observed the galactophorous pathways leading to the nipple.
5. Understanding the galactophorous architecture can aid in diagnosing certain breast conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/galactophorous>