

GALANTINE

Meaning: Galantine: a dish made of meat, typically poultry or fish, that is deboned, stuffed, and often served cold, often garnished for presentation.

1. The chef prepared a beautiful galantine, expertly deboned and filled with flavorful stuffing.
2. At the banquet, the highlight of the buffet was a stunning galantine adorned with fresh herbs and edible flowers.
3. During the cooking class, we learned the intricate techniques required to make a traditional galantine.
4. The galantine, served cold, was a perfect dish for the summer picnic, refreshing and elegant.
5. She marveled at the presentation of the galantine, which looked like a work of art on the plate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/galantine>