GALLING

Meaning: Galling: causing irritation or annoyance due to perceived unfairness or disrespect.

1. It was galling to see someone else receive the credit for her hard work.
2. The constant interruptions during the meeting were particularly galling to the speaker.
3. He found it galling that the rules applied to everyone except for him.
4. Losing the championship match in the final minutes was a galling experience for the team.
5. The galling attitude of his colleague made it difficult to collaborate effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/galling