GALVANIC

Meaning: Galvanic refers to processes involving electric current or stimulation, particularly in chemical reactions or in generating excitement and energy.

1. The scientist explained the galvanic reaction that occurs in batteries.
2. Her galvanic enthusiasm for the project inspired the entire team.
3. The galvanic corrosion of the metal parts was evident after years of exposure.
4. During the experiment, a galvanic current was generated by the chemical mixture.
5. His galvanic personality could light up even the dullest of gatherings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/galvanic